SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall submit his/her person, residence, office, safety deposit box, storage unit, property, or vehicle to a search, conducted by a U.S. Probation Officer or any other law enforcement officer, at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; the defendant shall notify any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The defendant, who is required to register under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act, must comply with all requirements of that Act. The defendant shall report the address where the defendant will reside and any subsequent change of residence to the probation officer responsible for supervision, and shall register as a sex offender in any jurisdiction where the person resides, is employed, or is a student. For initial registration purposes only, the defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction in which convicted if such jurisdiction is different from the jurisdiction of the residence. Registration must occur within three business days after sentencing (if the offender did not receive a prison sentence) or within three business days after being released from custody.)

The defendant shall participate in a sexual deviancy evaluation conducted by a sexual deviancy treatment provider, as directed and approved by the U.S. Probation Officer. The treatment provider shall be trained and experienced in the treatment of sexual deviancy, and follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The sexual deviancy evaluation may include psychological and physiological testing. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of the evaluation, according to his/her ability, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall actively participate and make reasonable progress in a certified sexual deviancy treatment program, as designated by the U.S. Probation Officer. The sexual deviancy treatment program shall follow the guideline practices established by the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers (ATSA). The program shall offer individual and group sessions, and appropriate testing, to determine the defendant's patterns of sexual arousal, and to monitor the defendant's progress and compliance with treatment goals and conditions of supervision. The defendant shall disclose all previous sex offender or mental health evaluations to the treatment provider. The defendant shall also contribute to the costs of treatment, according to his/her ability, as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall follow all rules, to include other lifestyle restrictions by the defendant's therapist, and continue with those rules and restrictions as they pertain to avoiding risk situations throughout the course of the defendant's supervision.

The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact with any female children under the age of 18, unless accompanied and supervised by an adult, who has been approved in advance by the sexual deviancy therapist and the supervising probation officer. The defendant shall immediately report any unauthorized contact with female children to the probation officer and sexual deviancy therapist.

The defendant's residence and employment shall be pre-approved by the probation office. The defendant shall not reside, work or volunteer at a location that exposes him/her, either directly or indirectly, to any female children under the age of 18.

The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact with known prostitutes or pimps, by any means, including in person, by mail, electronic means, or via third parties, without the approval of the probation officer.

The defendant shall not frequent or loiter in areas known for pimping and/or prostitution activity.

The defendant shall have no direct or indirect contact with his victims, Breanna Crenna, Alicia Morasse, Mar'Quicesha Redmond, Miranda Sullivan, Maribeth Mayer, and Keiyunie Smith, by any means, including in person, by mail, electronic means, or via third parties, without the approval of the probation officer. If any contact occurs, the defendant shall immediately leave the area of contact and report the contact to the probation officer, within one business day.

The defendant shall consent to the U.S. Probation Office conducting ongoing monitoring of his/her computer(s), hardware, and software, and any/all electronic devices/media. The monitoring may include the installation, at the defendant's expense, of hardware or software systems which allow evaluation of his/her computer use. Monitoring may also include the retrieval and copying of all data from his/her computer(s) or any/all other electronic devices/media. The defendant shall also comply with the requirements of the U.S. Probation Computer Monitoring Program as directed.

The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of the defendant's federal income tax returns.
